ASSOCIATE

Overview

Alyson's goal as an attorney is to be a resource to her clients and build long-lasting relationships. She is not just invested in the matter at hand—she is invested in every client and their future.

As a member of the firm's Business Litigation Service Group, Alyson counsels and defends her clients against claims including commercial disputes, product liability, professional liability, premises liability, insurance coverage, and election law. She is proactive in finding solutions that keep their best interests in mind.

When she is away from the office, Alyson enjoys learning about international cultures and history.
