SENIOR COUNSEL

Overview

Drew handles estate planning, business succession planning, special needs planning, estate and trust administration and probate. He also has extensive experience planning for clients' long-term care needs. Drew is a frequent public speaker on the topic of estate planning and is also a contributing author of several published estate planning books.

Drew is also a long time, founding board member and past president of Old Glory Honor Flight, Inc. a charity dedicated to ensuring that every World War II, Korean War, and Vietnam War veteran gets an opportunity to visit Washington D.C. to see the war memorials built in their honor. In addition, Drew is a founder of Missions of Honor, Inc. Both organizations were formed with the mission of honoring local wartime veterans.
