ASSOCIATE

Overview

A self-described fighter, Audrey's dedication to protecting what matters to her extends to her work and her clients. Her true passion lies in using the strengths she developed on her journey to becoming a lawyer to help others.

Audrey joined Amundsen Davis inspired by its ability to help a wide variety of clients through its breadth of practice areas. As an associate in the firm's Transportation & Logistics Service Group, she works on matters including liability, accidents, negligence, and statutory and regulatory violations. Clients appreciate her detailed, positive, and organized approach to legal work.

Some of Audrey's best work is done "pen to paper"; her passion for writing elevates her advocacy for clients. To create thoughtful solutions to complex legal issues, Audrey draws from a background in technology sales where she assisted clients in solving complex business issues. Her sharp argument and oral advocacy skills are displayed in her many wins.
