Overview

Brooke approaches every relationship with respect and honesty. Recognized for her reliability, loyalty, and care, she knows that trust is at the foundation of every client relationship and works to earn it.

As a member of the firm's Construction Service Group, Brooke represents clients facing a variety of issues, including personal injury, breach of contract, construction defect, negligence, premises liability, and more. Brooke has a track record for successfully negotiating favorable settlements for clients across a variety of practice areas. Her wins have taught her to think quickly on her feet and trust her intuition when representing her clients' best interests.

Brooke also believes in using her skills to give back to her community. She has worked on several cases through Chicago Volunteer Legal Services.
