Overview

Carol (She/Her) serves the firm's Labor & Employment, Business Litigation, Tort Litigation, and Aerospace Service Groups.

In Labor & Employment, Carol excels in supporting attorneys in addressing issues such as workplace discrimination, wrongful termination, and labor disputes. Her meticulous case management ensures that clients receive comprehensive assistance throughout the legal process.

In Business Litigation, Carol is known for her adeptness in handling a broad spectrum of commercial disputes. From contract disputes to regulatory compliance, she ensures seamless coordination, assisting in legal research, document preparation, and maintaining organized case files.

When it comes to Tort Litigation, Carol's attention to detail and analytical skills continue to shine through. She supports attorneys in navigating complex tort cases, addressing issues such as negligence and personal injury, and contributes to building robust defenses.

In the Aerospace sector, Carol's adaptability becomes evident as she assists in handling legal matters specific to the industry. Her ability to synthesize complex information, manage documentation, and contribute to regulatory compliance is integral to the success of our team.
