Overview

As a former social worker, Cecilia shows up for her clients with an unmatched ability to recognize individual challenges that require a bespoke approach. Her proactive, detail-oriented approach to problem-solving and ability to forge strong relationships allows her to effectively advocate for her clients' best interests every time.

As a member of the firm's Transportation & Logistics Service Group, Cecilia defends transportation and insurance carriers against personal injury and premise liability claims. With over seven years of experience spanning the private and public sectors, she is skilled at managing all aspects of a case, from inception and liability assessment through defense strategy and courtroom representation.
