Overview

Ethan was first inspired to pursue a career in law while taking a required business law class, where he learned he enjoyed learning about the intersection of law and business. Now a practicing attorney, he takes pride in doing critical work to help companies meet their objectives and finds fulfillment in coming up with solutions to a variety of issues in a timely, efficient manner. As a member of the firm's Transportation & Logistics Service Group, Ethan works with clients facing personal injury, negligence, and liability claims.

During his free time, Ethan enjoys playing tennis, exploring Chicago's food scene, spending time with family and friends, and cheering on his favorite teams.
