Overview

Joseph's ability to make his clients' business his own helps him provide them with the best possible service. As a member of the firm's Transportation & Logistics and General Liability service groups, Joseph defends businesses across a variety of industries. He represents motor carriers and freight brokers in complex personal injury litigation as well as private and public companies and individuals in matters including personal injury, wrongful death, and property damage. His quick thinking, diligent work ethic, and enthusiasm coupled with his business background make him an effective litigator and sound advisor.

A Cleveland native, Joseph can be found cheering on his favorite Ohio teams when he is away from the office.
