ASSOCIATE

Overview

Kenneth holds firm to the belief that nothing is impossible. This mindset—one that he was raised with—shaped him into the resilient and hardworking professional he is today. In every aspect of life, he is a goal-oriented individual who thrives on competing at a high level.

As an associate in the firm's Class Action Service Group, Kenneth provides clear, actionable counsel to clients across industries as they navigate high-stakes issues. He defends companies and individuals against privacy violations, consumer fraud, breach of contract, breach of warranty, and misrepresentation claims. Kenneth relies on the communication and interpersonal skills he developed during his time in the hospitality industry to work with clients as a team toward the best resolution possible.

Outside of the office, Kenneth enjoys playing golf, fashion, video production, and making the perfect cup of coffee.
