ASSOCIATE

Overview

Lorianna is a tenacious advocate for clients experiencing business disputes and lawsuits arising out of accidents. As a member of the firm's Aerospace Service Group, she represents insurers, aircraft owners, pilots and manufacturing companies in litigation.

Outside the office, Lorianna spends her time giving back to the community that gave so much to her. She often volunteers on Chicago's South Side where she grew up, helping college students apply for scholarships, helping with school supply drives and volunteering at homeless shelters, food kitchens and domestic violence shelters. She also spends her time tutoring students preparing for the bar exam.
