PARALEGAL

Overview

Lynn is no stranger to the courtroom. She brings more than 20 years of litigation experience to her role as paralegal. She supports clients and attorneys through e-discovery, legal research, court filings, and adept management of large-scale discovery matters. With a strategic approach, Lynn excels in initial fact investigation, document review, coordination and analysis of extensive document productions, and trial preparation and participation. She also participates in site inspections and organizes documents for experts, mediators, and briefs, ensuring a seamless legal process.
