Overview

Madison (She/Her) knows that it is an honor to assist her clients in a role that can make a meaningful impact on their lives. She is committed to ensuring her clients feel comfortable, whether that's taking the extra time to explain part of the legal process in detail or simply lending a listening ear. Her clients appreciate this authentic and transparent approach to relationship building.

As a member of the firm, Madison represents clients in a variety of areas, including employee relations and mergers and acquisitions. She also advises on general business matters. When finding solutions to legal issues, Madison draws on her past experience assisting with various aspects of employment and insurance law issues.

Outside the office, you can find Madison trying new recipes and spending quality time with her fiancé and cat.
