Overview

Many lawyers will tell you they are drawn to practicing law because they enjoy problem solving. For Michael, he represents clients to prevent problems. His goal as an estate planning attorney is to help his clients avoid the costs and headaches associated with the lengthy and rigid probate process.

Michael enjoys collaborating with clients in the creation of their estate plans, whether that be setting up wills, trusts, or both. He takes complex legal concepts and makes them easy to understand. Clients appreciate his personable nature and calm demeanor. He is always eager to talk to his clients and get to know them, their families and their business ventures so he can construct the best plan to fit their needs.
