PARALEGAL

Overview

Sydney is a paralegal in the firm's Insurance Services Group. In this role, she assists in matters involving insurance coverage disputes and trigger of coverage claims. She also supports the coverage attorneys in assessing complex insurance fraud claims on behalf of insurers.

Prior to joining the firm and attending law school, Sydney worked at a global consulting firm in the cyber and strategic risk practice with a focus on helping financial services and technology clients navigate regulatory issues in the data privacy space.

In her free time, she enjoys volunteering as a board member and coach of a youth golf nonprofit, reading, and spending time with family and friends.
