CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Overview

As an attorney and former general counsel, Tanya brings a diverse skill set to her role as chief operating officer. She began her career as an attorney with Amundsen Davis (then known as O'Hagan, Smith & Amundsen) in 2004. In her 15 years as an attorney at the firm, she was known as an exceptional lawyer, mentor, and leader. By the time she left the firm to be general counsel of a manufacturer she was a valued partner.

Tanya draws on her legal background and her experience managing business operations as she oversees the firm's administrative teams. She works closely with firm leadership and the Executive Committee on day-to-day operations, as well as long term strategic planning.

Outside the office you can find Tanya spending time with her family and attending her kids' activities.
