PARALEGAL

Overview

Tim is a paralegal in the firm's Trust, Estates & Succession Planning Service Group. His goal is to provide high-quality legal services centered around communication, transparency, and time management. Tim collaborates closely with attorneys and clients through all phases of estate planning, probate, trust administration, and guardianship matters. Known for his attention to detail, organizational skills, and calm demeanor, Tim takes pride in guiding clients through complex and often sensitive legal processes with professionalism and care, ensuring they feel informed and supported throughout their matter.

Outside of work, Tim enjoys spending time with his family and friends. He is a native of Greenfield, Wisconsin and has been an avid sports fan throughout his life, particularly the Packers, Bucks, Brewers, and Marquette basketball. Having also lived in the San Francisco Bay Area for many years, his experiences allow him to relate to clients with diverse backgrounds and priorities.
