In light of the recent rise in the number of retirement plan audits conducted by the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Labor, Kelly Haab-Tallitsch emphasizes the growing importance of ensuring that your 401(k) plan is compliant and guides attendees in the steps they should take to reduce the risk of penalties, fines, or disqualification of the plan due to noncompliance matters.

This webinar will explore the top ten 401(k) plan compliance mistakes employers make, providing attendees with valuable guidance on identifying and avoiding these mistakes and the correction procedures to follow if a compliance issue does happen to arise.
