

Consignment Agreements Under UCC Article 9

Indianapolis Bar Association; Indianapolis, IN July 20, 2016

As the economy continues to weaken across all sectors, consignment arrangements may become more attractive to dealers. This program offers insight into supplying goods on a consignment basis and how a consignor can protect its interest in the consigned goods from other creditors of the consignee. The focus of “Consignment Agreements Under UCC Article 9” addresses how consignment relationships are treated under article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.
