Amundsen Davis, Webcast; Chicago, IL
February 20, 2020 | 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM CT

Although cannabis remains illegal under federal law, the legalization of cannabis on the state-level has left employers feeling uncertain of how to tailor their workplace policies and procedures to fit the changing landscape.

Join Heather Bailey on Thursday, February 20 at 12:00 PM CT for the latest installment of our Labor & Employment Quarterly Series. She will do a deep dive into the cannabis laws and what employers should do to diminish their legal risks to protect their workforce. Specific topics include:

- What makes a good drug policy?
- Defining reasonable suspicion in the workplace
- Drug testing best practices
- Does your locale prohibit pre-employment drug testing for cannabis?
- How to handle safety-sensitive positions and testing for cannabis

Who should attend? HR professionals, managers, and business owners
