

The EEOC's New Wellness Program Regulations

Clear Law Institute, Webinar
September 30, 2016 | 1:00 PM - 2:15 PM ET

Recently, the EEOC passed a rule on employee wellness programs that offer monetary incentives for employee participation. In this Clear Law Institute program, Jon Hoag covers how your business can observe the rule and avoid litigation. Topics include:

- How to run your business' wellness program
- How the new rule applies to wellness programs under the HIPAA and the Affordable Care Act
- Ensuring that all employee participation is "voluntary" under the law
- What notice requirements businesses must give their employees
- Which incentives and limits are allowed
- Maintaining privacy under the law
