

HR: Legal Updates

VIA Professional Group Human Resources
October 23, 2019

Jeff Risch presents an in-depth interactive presentation for all Illinois employers. Attendees will get the latest recap of key statutory changes coming to Illinois on harassment and discrimination, wage and hour laws, and recreational marijuana. During the presentation Jeff will discuss:

- Current legislation and new laws that will change how Illinois employers manage employees
- Requirements to update training practices, key policies, personnel forms, severance agreements, non-disclosure and arbitration agreements
- Requirements for employers to disclose the number of sexual harassment and discrimination settlements or actions against them to the Department of Human Rights
- Requirements to train employees on preventing sexual harassment
- Protection of independent contractors from harassment and discrimination
