

Hiring 101

Speaking Engagement

Illinois Chamber of Commerce, Webcast

October 10, 2018 | 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM CT

Finding the perfect fit is important. Each time an employer hires an individual, there is a cost - in time and money - to train and retrain. Having to do so multiple times puts needless strain on already fragile manpower and budgets.

During this webinar, hosted by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, Jeff Risch helps employers get it right the first time by teaching companies how to effectively hire the right person and minimize the threat of litigation.
