

New Local Court Rules for Civil Proceedings – Kane County Bar Association Hosts Civil Practice Committee Meeting

Kane County Bar Association; St. Charles, IL
February 9, 2017 | 12:00 pm

The Kane County Bar Association hosts their Civil Practice Committee meeting on February 9, 2017. Daniel Whiston, board member and partner, hosts and moderates the meeting, focusing on the New Local Court Rules for Civil Proceedings.

Recently, the judges of the 16th Judicial Circuit approved these rules, in order to update and reorganize the current rules. KCBA member attendees are invited to review and provide feedback regarding the rules prior to enactment and publication of the new rules.

For more information, visit the Kane County Bar Association website.

PROFESSIONALS

Daniel R. Whiston
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation