

#MeToo - Sexual Harassment in the Workplace

USLAW; Webinar

April 9, 2019 | 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

The #MeToo social media movement has transformed the public perception of sexual harassment cases, and consequently, their litigation. This USLAW webinar will examine recent cases and trends taking root in the movement, and how the employment environment and the practice of labor and employment law defense is changing as a result. This session is relevant on many levels from the c-suite, to the halls of HR and the counsel table. Participants will be able to learn the newest updates on the sexual harassment legislation and how it impacts business and litigation.
