

Employment and Labor Law for Returning Workers to the Workplace – Part 2

National Automatic Merchandising Association, Webcast
May 21, 2020 | 2:00 PM ET

As part of the National Automatic Merchandising Association's (NAMA) Listening & Leading four part webcast mini-series, industry legal consultant Heather Bailey presents "Employment and Labor Law for Returning Workers to the Workplace – Part 2."

During the webinar, Heather will provide employers the tools they need to evaluate employment issues and risks as they attempt to return to a "new normal" and restore their business as their employees return to work. She will specifically focus on examining the process of diminishing the threat of workers' compensation and OSHA claims related to the pandemic.
