Critical Legal Updates Impacting the Construction Industry: What You Need to Know for 2021

Amundsen Davis's construction and labor and employment groups invite you to a complimentary live streamed seminar on the key legal issues and developments impacting the construction industry in 2021 -- from COVID-19 to the recent election. The live streamed seminar takes place on Thursday, January 21, 2021 from 8:30 AM to 11:30 AM CT.

As with most other events this year, we've pivoted to an online format. We're excited to be able to offer you our seminar as a live stream to your office or home office.

Who should attend? Construction Industry CEOs, COOs, CFOs, Accountants, Human Resource Managers, Safety Consultants, Claims Professionals and Risk Managers.
