

Volunteers Gone Wild: Managing, Disciplining, and Terminating Volunteers

Lorman Education Services; Webinar
July 25, 2018 | 1:00 PM - 2:30 PM EST

A good volunteer (which majority are) can serve as the driver of an organization and be its most vocal champion. However, a volunteer gone wild will be an organizations most vocal critic and can be its biggest liability.

During this live webinar, hosted by Lorman Education Services, Julie Proscia discusses ways nonprofit organizations can utilize screening and training procedures to manage volunteers, and identify potential risks to help protect against legal issues due to the improper handling of a volunteer.

PROFESSIONALS

Rebecca Bush
Partner

Julie A. Proscia
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Employment Advice &
Counsel

Government Regulation,
Audit & Compliance

Nonprofit Institutions & Tax-
Exempt Organizations

Staffing Agency, Independent
Contractor & Contingent
Workforce