

Amundsen Davis's Tenth Annual Labor & Employment Fall Seminar

Event

Amundsen Davis, Livestream
September 4, 2024 | Noon CT

Join us Wednesday, September 4 at noon for our Tenth Annual Labor & Employment Fall Seminar. This event will be livestreamed from our Chicago office. Our attorneys will discuss the latest employment law updates, labor law developments, issues related to employee benefits and more.

Key HR Trends and Latest Legal Developments Impacting All Employers

Join Ryan Young and Maggie Miles as they highlight the latest trends and updates in employment law. During this presentation they will discuss paid and unpaid leave mandates, pay transparency obligations, AI hiring practices, key case law developments, government agency priorities and related rulemaking, and more.

Labor Law Highlights Impacting Workplace Policies and Rules

Join Mike Hughes and Timm Schowalter as they identify the latest labor law developments that challenge remaining in compliance with the ever changing labor laws and how to manage a workforce with an emphasis on handbooks, work rules and policies (with particular attention to, union organizing, joint-employer, independent contractor classifications, confidentiality, non-disparagement, surveillance, safety and health, and other hot issues arising out of the NLRB and OSHA).

The Latest in Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Hot Button Issues

Employee benefits play an essential role in recruiting and retaining top talent. Join Rebecca Bush and Kelly Haab-Tallitsch as they discuss the latest trends in employee benefits and executive compensation and how to properly structure benefit plans for your employees. During this session they will discuss how to strategically use signing and retention bonuses, implement recent enhancements to 401(k) plans, and adopt creative deferred compensation plans
