Join Danessa Watkins and Ryan Jacobson for this in-person and live webcast event, "Running for Public Office: Keys to Success" hosted by the Chicago Bar Association where they present, "Defamation Nation: Taking the Pain out of Campaigning."

This seminar is geared towards individuals who will be running for office at the next General Primary and General Election, as well as the attorneys who will be representing them. It covers the requirements for getting on the ballot, defending and prosecuting petition challenges, ethical and finance issues relating to campaigns, and an overview of campaign-related communications and avoiding defamation claims.
