

Foxconn: Get In On the Ground Floor

Event

The Daily Reporter; Webcast
April 26, 2018

As recently announced, the lead contractors and designers for the Foxconn campus are M+W Gilbane, CH2M and The Sigma Group. This panel discussion and networking opportunity was designed to bring architects, contractors, developers, engineers and other real estate and construction entities together to discuss the upcoming Foxconn construction timeline, additional development opportunities and related labor shortages. More than 150 area real estate and construction leaders attended this event.

Laurie Meyer participated on the panel, along with Scott Jansen, Executive VP and CEO of Employ Milwaukee, Chris Gulbrandson, Business Manager and Financial Secretary, IBEW Local 430.
