

Law Firm Economics: What You Didn't Learn in Law School

Event

May 10, 2022

Event Sponsor: Amundsen Davis's Women's Attorney Group

On Tuesday, May 10, 2022, Amundsen Davis's Women's Attorney Group hosted the first part of a two-part series: "Law Firm Economics: What You Didn't Learn in Law School". David Brewer, the firm's Director of Finance, provided a look into law firm economics. This was a great educational opportunity for the women of Amundsen Davis to share their personal expertise with both the legal field and the firm, specifically, to help our up and coming attorneys succeed.
