Executive Orders and mandates are rolling out in 2025. Tariffs are at the top of the news cycle. Businesses need to manage the impact on their global trade with a Plan A, Plan B, and maybe a Plan C. Join Ngosong Fonkem to discuss strategic options to mitigate the affects of new or additional tariffs on goods - both 'coming in and going out'. During heightened unpredictability it is even more important to gain insights from others- experienced peers, from service providers, trade specialists. Roundtables are conducted with individuals' agreement to confidentiality.
