

Your Workforce: Trump Administration Employment Law - Year Two

Event
Green Bay, WI
March 6, 2018

Attracting and retaining a strong workforce in the modern era poses significant challenges for many employers. Yet, ensuring compliance with the regularly changing laws is no less challenging. Join the Labor & Employment Service Group for perspective on the activity that has impacted employers throughout the United States in the first year of the Trump administration. Several executive orders or guidance in areas of interest to employers have been withdrawn or modified. Meanwhile, Trump intends to continue his pursuit to bring more jobs back to the United States. What other related developments are anticipated for Trump's second year of administration? How best can employers navigate the significant policy shifts in rules? What fundamental steps must employers consider to be competitive in their effort to maintain and expand their workforce? These and many other looming questions will be covered to help employers avoid missteps and achieve their employment goals in 2018 and beyond.
