

Assisted with the Conversion of a Nonprofit Entity

Ann Rieger represented a tax exempt organization created upon the conversion of an insurer from nonprofit status to for-profit ownership. Efforts included liquidation of significant stock holdings, negotiation of applicable grant agreements, assistance with regulatory matters and general corporate law assistance. The organization made significant distributions in support of Wisconsin public health initiatives for several years following conversion.

PROFESSIONALS

Ann M. Rieger
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Nonprofit Institutions & Tax-
Exempt Organizations