

Coordinated the Response when a Small Company Suffered a Data Incident After an Employee's Laptop was Stolen

Amundsen Davis coordinated the response when a small company suffered a data incident after an employee's laptop was stolen and never recovered. This included analyzing the encryption and password protections, together with the extent of PII potentially exposed. We also advised on any legal responsibilities for notice under applicable states' laws, and generated an executive summary regarding our assessment.

PROFESSIONALS

Molly A. Arranz
Partner

John Ochoa
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Cybersecurity & Data Privacy
Data Privacy in the Workplace