

Counseled Cable Manufacturing Facility With Employee Fatality

Amundsen Davis counseled a cable manufacturing facility when an employee became fatally entangled in a cable spooler. OSHA issued multiple repeat and willful citations, with fines in the six-figure range. After months of litigation, the case was settled following a multi-day, mandatory settlement conference. OSHA reclassified the willful citations to other classifications, vacating a number of the citations, and reducing the fines significantly.

PROFESSIONALS

Matthew Horn
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

OSHA