

Created and Implemented a Trademark Licensing and Compliance Program for a Government Agency

Laura Grebe created and implemented a trademark licensing and compliance program for a government agency. Laura served as outside contracting counsel and was tasked with auditing the agency's existing trademark licenses, recommending changes to the existing licensing program to improve efficiency, and maintaining the underlying federal trademark registrations.

PROFESSIONALS

Laura Grebe
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Intellectual Property