

Defended a Condominium Association in a Civil Rights Action

Amundsen Davis defended a condominium association in a civil rights action in federal court under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983 brought by a tenant who had been evicted following her arrest and incarceration for homicide allegedly committed at the property. The court granted a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim.

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability