

Defended a Municipality Against Retirees Claims of Breach of Contract and Violations of the Illinois Insurance Code, U.S. Constitution Equal Protection Clause and the Illinois Constitution Pension Protection Clause

Amundsen Davis defended municipality against retirees claims of breach of contract and violations of the Illinois Insurance Code, U.S. Constitution Equal Protection clause, and Illinois Constitution Pension Protection clause relating to its health insurance for retirees. The court granted motion to dismiss with prejudice of breach of contract, Illinois Insurance Code and Illinois Constitution Pension Protection clause claims. We successfully defended the dismissal order on appeal leading to the plaintiffs voluntarily dismissing the case and remaining claims.
