

Defended Physical Therapists and a Large Hospital System against the Plaintiff's Claim Alleging Medical Malpractice

Matthew Kees defended a group of physical therapists and a large hospital system against the plaintiff's claim alleging medical malpractice in which the plaintiff claimed to have been permanently injured during a physical therapy session. The court granted summary judgment to our clients.

PROFESSIONALS

Matthew Kees
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Health Care
Professional Liability