

Developed Novel Defense in a BIPA Suit Based Upon Unique Finger-Scan Captures

Molly Arranz and John Ochoa advised a client on potential defenses to a BIPA class action, given the uniqueness of the finger-scans allegedly captured, which may not be considered “biometric identifiers,” to pursue a dual strategy of potential reduction in class size and success on ultimate merits of the case.

PROFESSIONALS

Molly A. Arranz
Partner

John Ochoa
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Biometric Privacy