

FMLA Interference Claim Dismissed Following Plaintiff Testimony

Stephen Pauwels successfully obtained the dismissal of a plaintiff's complaint involving alleged violations of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). During the case, he obtained testimony from the plaintiff that directly contradicted the interference claims, effectively dismantling the factual basis of the allegations. Based on this, the plaintiff voluntarily dismissed his claims, bringing the case to a close in favor of his client.

PROFESSIONALS

Stephen D. Pauwels
Senior Counsel

RELATED SERVICES

Employment Litigation
Labor & Employment