

Obtained a Court Order Compelling Arbitration on Behalf of a National Rideshare Company

Joseph Stefanko secured a victory on behalf of a national rideshare company by successfully obtaining a court order compelling arbitration in the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas. The court agreed with Joseph's arguments that the plaintiff's claims were subject to a valid and enforceable arbitration agreement, ensuring the dispute would proceed through the private arbitration process rather than in court.

PROFESSIONALS

Joseph R. Stefanko
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

Transportation & Logistics