

Obtained Judgment in Favor of a Client's Easement Rights at Trial

Elizabeth Miles successfully prosecuted a client's easement rights at trial after the client purchased property that included an access easement and neighboring property owner disputed the extent of the easement. The court found in her client's favor following trial.

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation