

Obtained Summary Judgment to Bar Family Expense Act Medical Bills on the Basis the Claim was Time Barred by the Statute of Limitation

Amundsen Davis obtained summary judgment to bar Family Expense Act (FEA) medical bills on the basis the claim was time barred by the statute of limitation while defending a youth care organization in a case where a minor fractured her femur during an attempted elopement. The plaintiff failed to name the minor's parents as party plaintiffs or to have the FEA claim assigned to the child.
