

Represented a Closely Held Family Business Design, Implement and Update their Business Succession Plan

We represented a closely held family business that has been in existence for more than sixty years, throughout the upper Midwest. We helped them design, implement, and update their business succession plan to ensure business continuity and management with the efficient and effective transfer of wealth and assets for future generations.

PROFESSIONALS

Charles G. Maris
Retired Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Trusts, Estates & Succession
Planning