

Represented a Government Agency as First Chair at Trial in Order to Acquire Easements Connecting Multiple Commercial Properties Adjacent to an Interstate Expansion

Dan represented a government agency as first chair at trial in order to acquire easements connecting multiple commercial properties adjacent to an Interstate expansion. The jury was charged with determining the value of the property acquired, and award the landowners less than 30% of the amount requested from the jury.

PROFESSIONALS

Daniel Faust
Senior Counsel

RELATED SERVICES

Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance