

Represented a Motor Carrier in a Carmack Amendment Claim

Amundsen Davis represented a motor carrier in a Carmack Amendment claim alleging damaged equipment that occurred during transport. Our attorneys were able to remove the action to Federal Court, and reach an amicable settlement for one third of the demand, after showing improper loading by the shipper.

PROFESSIONALS

Lew R.C. Bricker
Managing Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Transportation & Logistics