

Represented a Multinational Infrastructure Consulting Firm in Design and Construction Litigation

Elizabeth Miles and Jim Braza represented a multinational infrastructure consulting firm in litigation involving the design and construction of underground pipelines. The pipeline owner alleged claims of negligent design and inspection against Elizabeth's and Jim's client. Elizabeth and Jim negotiated favorable settlements prior to trial.

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation