

Represented a Pro se Prisoner Deprived of His Constitutional Rights in a Successful Mediation

Tiffany Woelfel represented a pro se prisoner who had had his constitutional rights deprived by the correctional institution's deprivation of medical care. She represented the prisoner as a pro bono upon recruitment by the federal district court. She lead the client through the mediation process to a successful mediation and resolution of the dispute.

PROFESSIONALS

Tiffany E. Woelfel
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation